Moral Relativism

- The philosophical theory of relativism claims that what is right or good differs from culture to culture or even from person to person.
- Moral truth is always relative to a culture or person's particular circumstances.
- There are no absolute or objective moral values or principles.

WHAT IS TOLERANCE?

Tolerance refers to the ability to accept and respect differences in opinions, beliefs, or behaviors of other people, even if they differ from one's own.

It is the ability to live together in harmony despite our divergences. Being tolerant involves being understanding, open, and respectful towards the diversity of ideas, cultures, religions, and ways of life.

It does not imply agreeing with everything, but rather seeking constructive dialogue and avoiding attitudes of rejection or discrimination. Tolerance promotes peaceful coexistence and fosters mutual understanding in a diverse and plural society.

Galatians 1:6-10

<sup>1:6</sup> I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting the one who called you to live in the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel— <sup>7</sup> which is really no gospel at all. Evidently some people are throwing you into confusion and are trying to pervert the gospel of Christ.

Galatians 1:6-10

2 Corinthians 11:4 For if someone comes to you and preaches a Jesus other than the Jesus we preached, or if you receive a different spirit from the Spirit you received, or a different gospel from the one you accepted, you put up with it easily enough.

Galatians 1:6-10

<sup>1:8</sup> But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a gospel other than the one we preached to you, let them be under God's curse! <sup>9</sup> As we have already said, so now I say again: If anybody is preaching to you a gospel other than what you accepted, let them be under God's curse!

Galatians 1:6-10

<sup>10</sup> Am I now trying to win the approval of human beings, or of God? Or am I trying to please people?

If I were still trying to please people, I would not be a servant of Christ.

Galatians 1:6-10

John 14:6 “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

Matthew 7:13 “Enter through the narrow gate; for the gate is wide and the way is broad that leads to destruction, and there are many who enter through it. <sup>14</sup> For the gate is small and the way is narrow that leads to life, and there are few who find it.
