

Romans 8:1

Therefore, there is now no
condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus

Romans 8:1

Therefore, there is now no condemnation, no adjudging guilty of wrong, for those who are in Christ Jesus (Amplified)

So no adverse sentence is there now, in view of this great fact of our redemption, for those in Christ Jesus. (Moule)

So now there is no condemnation for those who belong to Christ Jesus (New Living Translation)

No condemnation now hangs over the head of those who are in Jesus Christ (Phillips)

Not even one, therefore, now adverse judgment and resultant punishment to those in Christ Jesus.

What About King James? (Textus Receptus)

01

King James Version Includes:

“For those who are in Christ Jesus who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.”

02

Phrase is not considered legitimate

Probable that copyist inadvertently picked up the phrase from Romans 8:4.

03

No Qualifying Clause is Required

There is no such thing as too much grace.

Ironside

“It was man’s innate aversion to sovereign grace, I am certain, that brought these qualifying words into the text of the King James version. It seemed too much to believe that freedom from condemnation depended solely on being in Christ Jesus and not on our walking after the Spirit. . . The Christian’s war with sin does not end until he goes to be with the Lord. Nevertheless, there is still no condemnation -because the penalty for all the failures of this life (and who of us does not have many, yes, even many every day!) has been paid in full at Calvary.”

Let's Pray

Todd Peterson

Therefore, if any man is in Christ, he is a New creature: the old things passed away; behold new things have come.

2 Corinthians 5:17

A

There Is

We don't have to wait to know.

B

Therefore

A Summation of the Last 7 chapters

C

Now

Distinguishing the past condition from the present

Haldane

“We can never be more free from condemnation than we are at the present.”

A

No

Absolutely not a single
One

B

Condemnation

Judgement, separation, adversity

A

A Position

We are unified with Him

B

A Source

In Him we have all that we need

C

A Standing

We are seen in Christ

Ironside

Oh doubting one, look away then altogether from self and state, look away from frame and feelings to Christ, see Him risen forever beyond the cross where your sins once put Him, and see yourself in Him exalted and there at God's right hand. He would not be there if the sin question had not been settled to the divine satisfaction. The fact that He is there and that you are seen by God in Him is the fullest possible testimony to your freedom from condemnation.

Is it
A Cruel Message?

Unless there is no condemnation
there is no hope.

We cannot account for man's condition, nor satisfy justice, nor provide any means for change,
unless our position in Christ also atones for our brokenness apart from Him.

Is it
Too Much Grace?

There is not any guilt and shame,
blame and punishment that we ourselves can bear.

So no condemnation must be now
and forever, and without any other condition.

Because there is no
Condemnation,
There is No separation

We end where we began: in the love of God.

