Psalm 131, John 17

A Song of Ascents. Of David.

Psalm 133:1 Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!

Peace – Mission Critical

Psalm 131, John 17

² It is like the precious oil upon the head,
Running down on the beard,
The beard of Aaron,
Running down on the edge of his garments.

Peace – Mission Critical

Psalm 131, John 17

³ It is like the dew of Hermon,
Descending upon the mountains of Zion;
For there the Lord commanded the blessing—
Life forevermore. (NKJV)

Psalm 131, John 17

John 17:11 Holy Father, protect them by the power of your name, the name you gave me, so that they may be one as we are one.

Peace – Mission Critical

Psalm 131, John 17

²⁰ “My prayer is not for them alone. I pray also for those who will believe in me through their message, ²¹ that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us so that) the world may believe that you have sent me.

Psalm 131, John 17

John 13:34 “A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. ³⁵ By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.”

"...well-written, exceptionally clear... its views of unconditional self-acceptance and unconditional other-acceptance can work very well with self-helping readers. Very nicely done!"

Ephesians 4:2 I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received. ² Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. ³ Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace.

Peace – Mission Critical

Psalm 131, John 17

⁴ There is one body and one Spirit, just as you were called to one hope when you were called; ⁵ one Lord, one faith, one baptism; ⁶ one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.
